Decrease. $3,247,626 969,536 156,483 3,783,42 The decrease of specie is less than was expected, considering the heavy payments into the Sub-Treasury. To day the banks hold over $12,000,000. including the remittance from California received yesterday, and further amounts are on the way from Europe. The decrease in the loans reflects the absorption of the popular loan by the public. To-day another million was paid over to the banks by the Sub-Treasurer on this account. We hear that at most of the large banks the private deposits increase, while the government deposit diminishes in proportion to the public subscriptions to the The reduction in the loans since October 12

the whole State, secured by the above mentioned first mortgage, stands in the market at about 10,000,000. In other words, ten millions of dellars will now purchase the whole bonded debt of the State. In the event of the success of the national arms the prospect of Missouri becoming a free State almost immediately would be very fair, in which event, and in view of her unbounded resources, there is no reason why her credit should not be at least as good as that of Ohio or Blineis.

The business of the Sub-Treasury was as fo'. lows to-day:--

United States Mint at Philadelphia has appeared. The coinage was only about one-third of what it was in July and August. The New York Assay Office has but $750,000 awaiting recoinage. We annex the statement:-
